Re: Crestwood Technology Group Corp. v. Patrick Dunn
Civil Action No: 17 Civ. 8283 (KMK)

Dear Judge Karas:

This law firm represents the Plaintiff, Crestwood Technology Group Corp. ("CTG"), in the above-referenced matter.

By Order dated November 29, 2017, Your Honor issued an Order prohibiting Defendant Patrick Dunn from contacting or soliciting CTG's customers. Contrary Your Honor's Order, Defendant has placed sixteen (16) phone calls to CTG's customer: 15 of the calls occurred after the issuance of the Order. Furthermore, Defendant has text messages CTG's customer on 303 separate occasions: 233 messages occurred after the issuance of the Order. These calls and the number of text messages were ascertained from Verizon phone company records. CTG respectfully requests a hearing for sanctions, attorneys' fees, the striking of Defendant's Answer and other remedies for Defendant's willful non-compliance of the Court's Order. CTG has also made an application to Magistrate Smith for inspection of Defendant's telephone that was used for these phone calls and text messages.

If you should have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the parties.

Respectfully submitted,
